Activity 3: Expert Talks

Expert Talk by Doctors: On the occasion of International Women's Day, AIKTC organized an expert talk on "Bullying Stress Believing Harmony," delivered by Dr. Yash Velankar and Dr. Tanuja Purav, both esteemed practitioners with a Bachelor of Ayurvedic Medicine and Surgery. Held on March 11th, the session specifically targeted female students, faculty, and staff, addressing crucial issues related to bullying, stress management, and achieving harmony in both personal and professional spheres.

Dr. Velankar and Dr. Purav shared valuable insights on recognizing and combating bullying, employing Ayurvedic principles to manage stress, and fostering a belief in self-worth and harmony. The interactive session allowed attendees to discuss their experiences and seek advice on handling stress and maintaining mental well-being. The talk was highly appreciated by participants, who found the practical advice and supportive environment beneficial. This event not only enhanced awareness but also empowered the AIKTC female community with strategies to improve their mental health and resilience.

Expert Talk by Female Alumna: Ms. Shafak Zariwala, an AIKTC School of Pharmacy alumna, delivered an inspiring talk to female students, faculty, and staff, sharing her professional journey and achievements. Her insights and experiences motivated attendees, highlighting the potential and opportunities available to women in their careers.
