DESCRIPTION OF EVENT IN 50-100 WORDS:

The Full Stack Web Development (Peer Learning) session was a successful student-led initiative conducted by TE students Mr. Nadeem Shaikh and Shaikh Mudassir, in collaboration with Infispark. The event provided an engaging and interactive learning experience where students gained hands-on exposure to both frontend and backend technologies. Participants actively worked on real-world projects, enhancing their coding and problem-solving skills while learning to build dynamic web applications.

The peer-learning approach fostered a collaborative environment, encouraging students to share knowledge and learn from one another. The event was well-received, with enthusiastic participation and positive feedback from attendees. Many students expressed their appreciation for the practical, project-based methodology, which helped them strengthen their understanding of full-stack development. The initiative successfully empowered students with industry-relevant skills, making it a valuable learning experience for all.
