The Day wise reports are presented below:

Theme of the Day1: Literature Review

Date: 15ᵗʰ Aug., 2022   Time: 2:00pm – 5:00pm (IST)

Ms. Shaheen Momin, Librarian from AIKTC anchored the event, followed by the recital of verses from the Quran. The speakers and attendees were warmly welcomed by the director of AIKTC, Dr. Abdul Razak Honnutagi. He appreciates the efforts made by the library team to regularly host motivating events for faculty development. He also explained the FDP's goals, guiding principles, and importance to the scholarly community. The Day 1 sessions on the theme "Literature Review" begin with an introduction of resource persons by Mrs. Shaheen Momin.

Session1: Open Educational Resources: A Boon for Researchers'
Resource Persons: Mrs. Vrushali Dandawate, Librarian AISSMS College of Engineering, Pune & DOAJ Ambassador of India

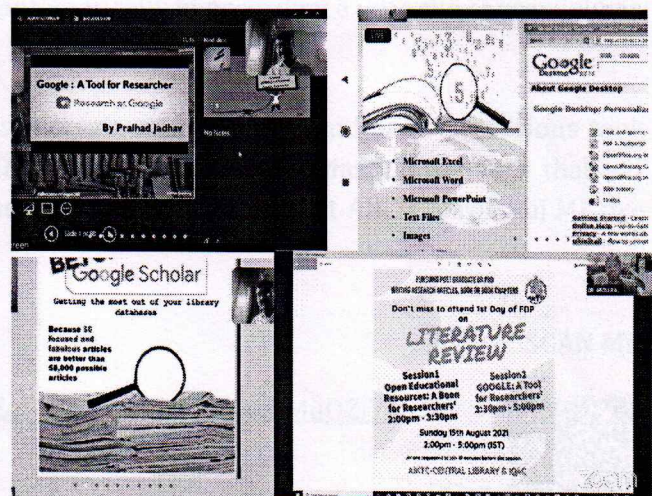

A research-based literature review requires a significant amount of data collection, which, if properly curated and managed, could be of great value to the research community and speed up related research. Mrs. Vrushali Dandawate spoke about the importance of Open Access (OA) & Science, open access publications, and the various open educational resource platforms essential for researchers to conduct literature reviews and publish their findings. She also put the spotlight on Sherpa/Romeo and the ThinkCheckSubmit site before submitting the papers to OA.

Session2: Google: A tool for Researchers'
Resource Persons: Mr. Pralhad Jadhav, Associate Director, Library Management at Khaitan & Co.

Mr. Pralhad Jadhav presented the second session, in which he discussed the various intelligent Google tools that can be used to conduct a successful literature review, including Basic Search, Advance Search, Google Scholar, Google Docs, Reverse Image, News, etc.

This put an end to the insightful sessions and made room for question and answer sessions. Enthused participants definitely gained in-sights from the speakers that will help them in their research in the future.

Prof. Fauwaz Parkar, Assistant Professor of Civil Engineering at the AIKTC, offered a vote of thanks.

Theme of the Day2: Reference Management Tools (RMT)
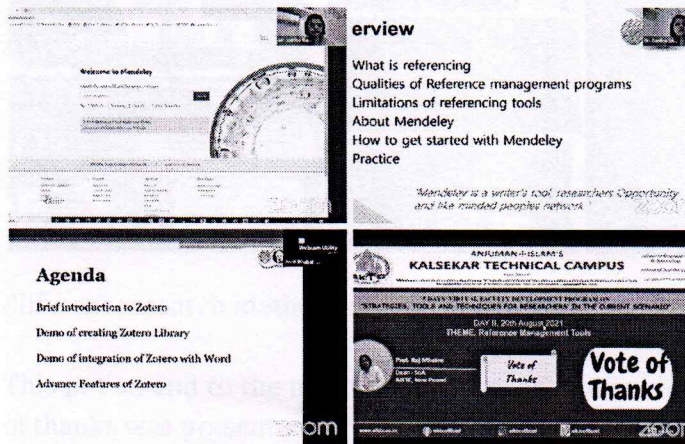

Date: 20th Aug., 2022   Time: 2:00pm – 5:00pm (IST)

Ms. Shaheen Momin, Librarian from AIKTC anchored the event, followed by the recital of verses from the Quran. Dr. Rajendra Magar, HoD, Dean Academics, and IQAC Coordinator of AIKTC, extended a warm welcome to the speakers and attendees. He also explained the RMT importance to the scholarly community. Prof. Arif Shaikh, FE Controller, AIKTC introduced the resource persons of the day.

Resource Persons:
Dr. Sarika Sawant, Asst Professor at SHPT School of Library Science, SNDT, Mumbai
Dr. Jyoti Bhabal, Asst Professor at SHPT School of Library Science, SNDT, Mumbai

Dr. Sarika Sawant and Dr. Jyoti Bhabal had taken informative practical sessions on Mendeley and Zotero, respectively. Participants discover that they can now quickly import references into Mendeley by dragging PDF files into the proper folder or by using the Web-Importer tool. Learned how to automatically sort paper collections and sync accounts across numerous computers. Using the MS Word plugin makes all their references instantly available for text citation. Within seconds, the bibliography and citation style are organized automatically in accordance with the chosen journal style etc…

The insightful discussions came to an end as a result, and question-and-answer sessions took their place. The speakers undoubtedly provided information to the enthusiastic attendees that will help them in their future research. The Dean of the School of Architecture at AIKTC, Prof. Raj Mhatre, gave a vote of thanks.
