The art of practicing yoga helps in controlling in individual mind, body and soul. It brings together physical and mental disciplines to achieve a peaceful body and mind. It helps manage stress and anxiety and keeps you relaxed. It also helps in increasing flexibility, muscle strength and body tone.

It improves respiration energy and vitality. Practicing yoga might seem like just stretching but it can do more for your body from the way you feel, look and move.

The true essence of yoga is always around elevating the life force for Kundalini at the base of the spine. It aims to achieve this through a series of physical and mental exercises.

At the physical level, the matter comprises various yoga postures and other that they need to keep the body healthy. The mental level includes breathing exercises or Pranayama, meditation or Dhyani discipline of mind.

True yoga is not about the shape of your body, but the shape of your life. Yoga is not to be performed; yoga is to be lived. Yoga doesn't care about what you have been, you care about it. A person who cares about it, yoga is designed for a person who is ready to be called yoga.
